WHO WE ARE

The Civil Society Platform for Peacebuilding and Statebuilding (CSPPS) is a global network of 800+ civil society organisations working in 52 countries to advance peacebuilding and conflict prevention in fragile and conflict-affected settings. We amplify the voice and agency of local civil society in key global policy arenas, from the International Dialogue on Peacebuilding and Statebuilding to the UN's 2030 Agenda and New Agenda for Peace. Supported by a Secretariat hosted by Cordaid, CSPPS drives coordinated advocacy for advancing peaceful, just, and inclusive societies, with SDG16 at the heart of our mandate.

OUR COMMITMENT

CSPPS is committed to empowering local civil society as a full and equal partner in preventing conflict, sustaining peace, and shaping inclusive policies. We foster South-South and South-North collaboration, strengthen local, national and global advocacy, and ensure that grounded expertise from fragile contexts informs high-level decision-making. Together with our members, we work to open doors, build partnerships, and secure meaningful civil society participation in peacebuilding and conflict prevention processes worldwide.

The International Dialogue on Peacebuilding and State- building (IDPS) is a unique tripartite partnership bringing together conflict-affected countries (g7+), development partners (INCAF), and civil society (represented by CSPPS). As the recognised civil society arm of the partnership, CSPPS ensures that local civil society voices help shape policy discussions, supports drive country-led pathways out of fragility, and helps build the trust and momentum needed for sustainable peace and inclusive development.
